Catarrh
IS a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Peggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I was convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

THE REPORT CONFIRMED.

Prince Bismarck and the Cabinet Have Resigned.

EUROPEAN NATIONS ANXIOUS.

Fears That War May Follow the Iron Chancellor's Withdrawal—The Causes of the Affair—Bismarck's Probable Successor—German Press Opinions.

BERLIN, March 19.—The reported resignation of Chancellor Bismarck, published in these dispatches yesterday, proves to be well founded. The Tagblatt announces the retirement of the chancellor from all his offices and that Count Herbert, with all the Prussian and imperial ministers and chiefs of department, has resigned. This latter story is not confirmed, except in the case of Count Herbert, and many doubted in Berlin yesterday the report of the chancellor's resignation. The Post advised people to wait till The Reichsanzeiger confirmed the report, and the latter appeared in the evening without the slightest confirmation. At the cabinet meeting Monday the kaiser placed his ultimatum before the chancellor on the labor question, and the latter promptly resigned. Tuesday morning the kaiser sent to the chancellor to effect a compromise, but he refused to yield an iota of his original position.

COUNT HERBERT.

The Resignation Accepted.

It has just been announced that Prince Bismarck's resignation of the chancellorship was accepted by the emperor at noon. It is stated in well informed political circles that the present differences between the emperor and Prince Bismarck is irreconcilable. It arises from the chancellor's refusal to accede to a request made by Dr. Windthorst, the leader of the clerical party in Germany, to restore to the Duke of Cumberland, the claimant of the throne of Hanover, the larger portion of the Guelph fund. The attitude of the emperor in opposing Prince Bismarck in this matter is taken as an indication of his desire to conciliate the clerical party. If the government is to secure a working majority in the new reichstag it cannot well get on without the party of the Center, which Dr. Windthorst controls.

PRINCE BISMARK.

The Ministry's Withdrawal.

The resignation of the ministry was merely the customary formal act, but it is reported that Count Herbert Bismarck and Minister Maybach really intend to resign. Herren Rickert and Goldschmidt and other Freisinnige deputies were invited to the court banquet last night. Never before had a member of the Freisinnige party been thus honored. It is stated that the Freisinnige Professor Handl and Herr Miquel will be invited to enter the cabinet as an earnest of the emperor's desire to legislate for the people.

Who Will Be Chancellor?

The great question discussed is, Who will be Bismarck's successor? Most people incline to the idea that Dr. Hinzpeter will be the man. He is known to be in sympathy with the emperor's social reform and to entertain political views in direct opposition to the chancellor. Hereafter the emperor will be his own chancellor. If Dr. Hinzpeter does succeed Bismarck he will be little more than a private secretary to the emperor.

The immediate cause of the crisis is obscure, but it is believed to be the emperor's Socialist policy, which is having a great effect on international as well as on domestic affairs. The emperor cajoles where Bismarck favors the cudgel.

Since the recent elections, which proved such a terrible blow to Bismarck's internal policy, new facts daily brought forward show that, however great his genius may be as regards foreign affairs, he has made a failure of the domestic affairs of Germany.

German and Other Press Opinions.

The Kreuz Zeitung had only a short article in a corner of the paper on the retirement of the chancellor, which is erroneously attributed to a divergence of opinion with the kaiser on the colonial policy.

The National Zeitung accepts the retirement as a fait accompli and hopes the chancellor will long remain to witness the advancement of his work.

The Tagblatt, which has always opposed the prince, says he represented to the Germans the supreme architect among those who built up new Germany, and to foreigners he personified the strength and glory of the fatherland.

The Vossische says: "The prince is such an overwhelming factor in the politics of his country that Germans will have difficulty in getting accustomed to the new state of things." Another paper says: "Kaiser Wilhelm II's reign has now begun in earnest." This is only one specimen of the poisoned arrows hurled at what is supposed to be failing greatness by men who have thrived for years on the dust licked from shoes whose latchets they were unworthy to unloose.

The London Standard's Berlin correspondent is assured on good authority that Herr von Boetticher will not succeed Prince Bismarck. The chancellor's resignation was not influenced in the smallest degree by the result of the recent elections. On the contrary, he expressed hope that he would be able to govern with success with the present reichstag.

The Austrian government, press and public, greatly fear that the resignation of Prince Bismarck will lead to a rupture of the peace alliance.

The Temps, The Debats and other leading French journals, display anxiety for the future in consequence of Prince Bismarck's resignation.

Prince Bismarck's Career.

Prince Bismarck was born at Schonhausen, April 1, 1815, and is therefore just closing his seventy-fifth year. He was made minister of foreign affairs and of the king's house in Prussia in September, 1862. From that time until the death of the emperor William I he practically swayed the government of all Germany, and dictated the general policy of the great powers. In 1869 he was foreign minister of the North German confederation, having succeeded to that point in the great dream of his life—the unification of Germany.

Two years later, on Jan. 18, 1871, he witnessed the complete accomplishment of his vast political design at Versailles. There, in the palace of the French kings, he took part in the symbolism which proclaimed Germany an empire, the grandest historical picture of modern times, the coronation of William I emperor of Germany. In that same month of January he was appointed by his imperial master chancellor of the empire, the office which he has now resigned after holding it nineteen years.

Made a Prince.

Created a count in 1865, he was now raised to the rank of prince. As chancellor he angered the Roman Catholic party by his aggressive acts with regard to the freedom of the church, resulting in the expulsion of the Jesuits and the imprisonment of a number of Roman Catholic bishops.

Prince Bismarck presided over the famous congress of Berlin, which resulted in the treaty of San Stefano. Since that period he has devoted his efforts toward the foundation of a German colonial empire, to pincating the Roman Catholics—in which he succeeded for a time, so far as Prussia was concerned—and to strengthening the Austro-German alliance.

The News in Vienna.

VIENNA, March 19.—The confirmation given by the evening papers of the report that Prince Bismarck's resignation has been accepted is causing a tremendous sensation in political circles here. The almost immediate retirement of Count Kalnoky is looked for in consequence.

The chancellor's action is generally admitted to have been brought about by the young emperor's determination to have free hand in the management of state affairs rather than to any difference of opinion regarding any social problem.

The Emperor and the Army.

BERLIN, March 19.—The emperor has called a meeting of the commanders of the various army corps. He had a conference with the minister of war yesterday afternoon.

The Bourse was slightly depressed, but recovered at the close. European bankers generally appear to have full confidence that the Bismarck crisis has been discounted!

FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

Condensed Report of Proceedings in the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The house today passed the Oklahoma bill by a vote of 160 to 35.

In the senate Senators Sherman and Butler indulged in a spirited debate over reconstruction measures and the granting of the ballot to the negro.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Representatives Quinn, Flower and Tracy, of New York, made arguments before the house committee on rivers and harbors in regard to the necessity of providing for large improvements to the Hudson river and New York harbor.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—In the senate Mr. Call's resolution to consider nominations in open session was rejected.

Other bills introduced in the senate were the following: By Mr. Evarts—To insure preference to veterans of the late war in employment on public works. This bill provides that Union soldiers, sailors and marines shall be given preference for certification, appointment, employment and retention in every public department and on all public works of the government, and in competitive and non-competitive examinations of the civil service. Age, loss of limbs, or other physical impairment which does not incapacitate, shall not disqualify the applicant, provided he possesses the necessary business capacity. Such persons, unless employed for a statutory term, shall not be dismissed except on charges and after a hearing. Violation of this law by heads of departments, officials, boards of examinations, or others is to be prosecuted as a misdemeanor. By M. Plumb—To prevent desertions from the army.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The house passed senate bill (with an amendment striking out the appropriation clause) increasing from $150,000 to $300,000 the limit of cost of the public building at Sacramento, Cal.; house bill for a public building at Paris, Tex., at a cost of $50,000; house bill authorizing the superintendent of census to enumerate the Chinese population of the United States in such a manner as to enable him to make a complete and accurate descriptive list of all Chinese persons who are in the United States at the time of taking the census, and to give each person so enumerated a certificate containing particulars necessary for full identification, which certificate shall be the sole evidence of the right of the person to be and remain in the United States.

Penalties are provided for the transfer or sale of these certificates. One hundred thousand dollars is appropriated to carry out the provisions of the act.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee have agreed upon every point of division on the tariff schedules and the reductions to be made from internal revenue and will present the bill to the full committee for its consideration in a few days. The clauses relating to carpet wools, Mexican lead ores and one or two other articles have not yet been finally and definitely passed upon. While the bill is not absolutely completed, and will, of course, be subject to revision, it is believed to be substantially a finished measure so far as the majority of the committee is concerned.

The internal revenue features of the bill are as follows: The entire abolition of all special taxes upon dealers of all kinds, commonly known as licenses; the tax upon snuff will be repealed; farmers and planters growing tobacco will have the liberty to sell to whosoever they please without restraint in the same manner as any farmer can dispose of any other of the products of his land.

There are a number of important changes in the metal schedule. Existing rates are maintained upon iron ore and pig iron. Barbed wire for fencing is made dutiable at 6-10 cents per pound, which is below the duty upon that kind of iron entering into other uses. Beams, girders and structural iron is reduced from 1¼ cents to 6-10 cents a pound, which is a reduction below that of the senate bill. Railway iron is reduced to 6-10 cents a pound, the present rate being $17 a ton, a reduction of about $4 a ton, and a reduction in the rate fixed by the senate bill. The duty on steel rails is reduced $4 a ton. The duty on tin plate has increased to 2 2-10 cents a pound. Pig iron remains free. There is an increase in the duty upon pocket cutlery.

In the lumber schedule the duty on sawed boards, planks and finished lumber is reduced 50 per cent from the present rate. There is a special provision inserted that in case Canada lays an export duty upon lumber, then duties shall be collected according to the rates under existing law.

The duty on Sumatra tobacco is increased to $2.75 per pound. There is an increase generally along the entire list in the duties upon agricultural products. The duty upon barley is raised to 30 cents a bushel, hops to 15 cents a pound, buckwheat to 15 cents a bushel, macaroni and vermicelli 2 cents a pound, oats 10 cents a bushel. The duty on agricultural seeds is increased. The duty on rice is reduced from 2½ to 2 cents a pound, rice flour and rice meal from 1 cent to ¾ cent a pound, and broken rice to ½ cent a pound. Butter and substitutes therefor have the duty increased to 6 cents a pound. The duty on eggs is raised to 5 cents a dozen, potatoes to 25 cents a bushel.

Hides, which are now on the free list, are made dutiable at 1½ cents a pound. There is a small increase in the duty upon fruits, oranges in packages of 1¾ cubic feet or less, 25 cents per package; in packages exceeding 1¾ and not exceeding 3½ cubic feet, 50 cents a package. Raisins, 2½ cents a pound duty. Advances in duties have generally been conceded the farming interests where it is believed the increased duties will benefit the farmer.

Cotton manufactures are left substantially as in the senate bill. Jute, manilla, sun and sizal grass are put upon the free list, as is wool de grass, which enters into the finishing of leather. A reduction is made in the duty on binding twine.

In the wool schedule, wools of the first class, known as clothing wools, 11 cents a pound; wools of the second class, known as combing wools, 12 cents; carpet wools, valued at 12 cents or less, 3½ cents per pound; valued at over 12 cents, 8 cents a pound. This is a reduction of ¼ cent a pound from the senate bill, and an increase of 1¾ cents from the present law. It is believed, however, that the definitions and classifications and restrictions provided for will make this duty even more valuable to the wool growers than the duty fixed by the senate bill.

Is Lester B. Faulkner Alive?

ALBANY, March 19.—A story regarding Lester B. Faulkner, at one time a state senator and also chairman of the Democratic state committee, and who lately was president of the National Bank of Dansville, is being circulated. It will be remembered that Faulkner was convicted of being the cause of wrecking the bank, and was sentenced to prison for ten years. An appeal was taken, and before a decision was reached Faulkner was presumably taken ill and died. It was asserted in the senate chamber yesterday that there is positive evidence that Faulkner is alive and in Mexico. It is asserted that his gardener was buried in his stead.

They are about to build a new Masonic Temple in Chicago, at a cost of $3,000,000.

To Bridge the North River.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The North river bridge project has received the favorable indorsement of the house committee on commerce. The bill was introduced in the house by Mr. McAdoo, of Jersey City, and has as a title "A bill to authorize the construction of a bridge and approaches at New York city across the North river, to regulate commerce in and over such bridge between the states of New York and New Jersey, and to establish such bridge a military and post road." The bill authorizes a company of capitalists headed by Jordan L. Mott to locate, equip and operate the bridge, and to lay tracks on it for the connection of the railroads on either side of the river in order to facilitate interstate commerce. No government appropriation is provided for.

Mrs. Trask's Wanderings.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 19.—The wife of ex-Lieutenant Governor Trask, while suffering mentally, wandered away from her home about 10 o'clock at night, and although a search was kept up all night she was not found until morning, when she was discovered on the Wilbraham road near Doyle brook, with her arm broken and unconscious. She was apparently trying to go to Monson, where she lived several years ago.

HOUGHTALING RESPONSIBLE.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury on the Lake Shore Wreck.

BUFFALO, March 19.—The coroner's jury investigating the Lake Shore wreck at Hamburg have returned the following verdict: "The management of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad company should be charged with gross negligence for the reason that the rules and regulations for the running of their trains are not strictly enforced and that the safety of passengers is endangered thereby; that the jury believe that Division Superintendent Couch has knowledge that passenger trains have been run on said road in an unsafe and crippled condition, and that a strict compliance with the rules would have prevented this accident.

"The conductor, Houghtaling, is personally responsible for the accident for these reasons: First, for leaving Dunkirk with the air brakes on five cars crippled; second, for not having safety chains adjusted between the coach and sleeper; third, for not placing a trainman on the cars after the first break, so as to protect the train in case of a second break; fourth, for pulling the bell cord to stop the front section in violation of the rules. Daniel Beckwith, the front brakeman, is severely censured for leaving the train without first notifying the passengers that the train had parted and that there was danger; that the air brakes that stopped the first portion of the parted train were set by some person or persons unknown to the jury."

BEDLOE'S OR ELLIS ISLAND?

The Committee from Congress Will Inspect New York Harbor.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—At a joint meeting of the senate and house committees on immigration the agreement previously made by Chairmen Chandler and Owen was formally ratified. Under this arrangement the committees will leave Washington on next Friday morning for New York and hold an informal meeting that evening at the Fifth Avenue hotel. At that time they will receive all persons who may desire to present propositions respecting the location of the immigrant landing station. The governor of New Jersey and mayor of Jersey City will be invited to appear and state their objections to the use of Bedloe's Island for this purpose and their arguments in favor of the selection of Ellis Island. Saturday and Monday, if necessary, will be occupied in visiting the several islands under consideration and inspecting the work at Castle Garden.

Invitations were received by the committee to visit New York and make the inspection under the auspices of the New York immigration commissioners, but the trip will be made independent of invitations from any source. A request will be made by the committee that a representative from each the war, navy and treasury departments be detailed to accompany the committee on its trip. An investigation of the immigration question generally, if it shall be decided upon, will be held later.

MORE INDICTMENTS.

They were Based on the Ludlow Street Jail Exposure.

NEW YORK, March 18.—The grand jury has presented six indictments. They were all for extortion, and were against the following persons: Bernard F. Martin, deputy commissioner of public works; Deputy Sheriff Patrick Fitzgerald, Deputy Sheriff Joseph Young, ex-Deputy Sheriff Philip Walsh, and Edward Hibbard and Charles Lindeman, special deputies in the order of arrest department. The charge against all was extortion, the evidence being based on the recent exposures regarding the management of Ludlow Street jail and the sheriff's office.

Martin is charged with accepting a $700 bribe from Charles G. Franklyn during the time the latter was confined in Ludlow Street jail. Philip Walsh, Joseph Young and Edward Hibbard, it is understood, are indicted as Martin's accomplices in extorting money from Franklyn.

Patrick Fitzgerald is charged with extorting $12.50 from Mrs. Josephine Olean, a French woman, against whom he had an execution for $22 to collect. Charles Lindeman is said to have collected this money from Mrs. Olean for Fitzgerald and also to have returned it to her at the latter's instigation when he became frightened at the publication of his action in a morning paper.

It was said that Steve Sullivan, a deputy sheriff, had also been indicted, but this could not be verified. Sullivan is said to be implicated with McGonigle and Keating for extorting money from the reporter, Hersch. Young is said to have an extra count against him for the part he played with McGonigle in the reporter's affair. Martin, Fitzgerald and Walsh were arrested and then released on bail.

THE SAXTON BILL PASSED.

The Assembly at Albany Approves of the Measure.

ALBANY, March 14.—The Saxton ballot reform bill has passed the assembly by a vote of 72 to 51. Sixty-eight Republicans and four Democrats were for the bill, and fifty-one Democrats and no Republicans against it. Three Republicans were absent. The bill will now have to go back to the senate for concurrence.

The following Democrats voted for the bill: Messrs. Sohmer, Kerrigan, Brady and Menninger.

The corrupt practices bill was then taken up and passed, after the insertion of amendments by Messrs. Acker and Stranahan sufficient to send it back to the senate till the governor's action on the ballot reform bill is known, by 115 affirmative and no negative votes.

Election Officers in Trouble.

RONDOUT, N. Y., March 19.—Henry Beck, a saloon keeper, has sworn out warrants for the arrest of Inspectors Jordan, McDermott and Larkin and Poll Clerks Ward and Flynn, of the Fifth Ward poll in the recent election, charging them with falsely stating the result of the vote in that ward for aldermen. Beck failed to get the regular Democratic nomination and ran independently, being indorsed by the Republicans. The contest was close. The board declared P. J. Brennan, a Democrat, elected by one vote. Beck protested. The majority of the common council favored Beck, but Brennan obtained an injunction restraining them from seating Beck. The injunction order is returnable at Albany next Wednesday. The Second Crop of Seed Thoughts.

MR. EDITOR.

Produce markets may be dull, but thinking was never more active among the farmers and some of them will think out a way to control the influences that control the prices between the farmer and consumer.

The farmers are beginning to perceive that as a farming nation they have to face a condition of overproduction and under consumption that affects them throughout the nation.

This condition should cause the farmers to learn that the price of the surplus of their grain is set by the price of the surplus of each crop at Liverpool, England, in free competition with the surplus of all other grain producing countries. So far as grain is concerned, it is a free trade market.

If the farmers, working at the unprofitable business of raising grain, which they are forced to sell in a free trade market, while they supply their own wants in a high tariff market, could be brought to see the Treasury surplus in a proper light, and vote accordingly, times would be more satisfactory.

Thank fortune, it is beginning to be felt at the money centres, that if the millions of people who do the farming do not get good pay for their labor, their ability to buy of merchants and manufacturers is curtailed, and trade with them is much reduced. If they want the golden eggs, they must not kill the goose that lays them.

Farmers are also beginning to perceive that a legislature is needed that can and will do its own work, and not shoulder on some commission the work it does not know how or neglects to do. They begin to see that they must elect men for the legislature who know the needs of the State; who are informed on subjects pressing for legislative consideration. The farmers and others who are complaining of the burdens of taxation are learning that they owe it to themselves to see that they are represented by men who understand something about the questions which they will be called to vote upon in the legislature; not what his business calling has been or may be now a man who takes an interest in politics for the common good of his fellow citizens and not for his self pride or perquisites—mainly perquisites.

The farmers are beginning to realize that their representatives must have an idea of how to harmonize the various conflicting interests in our Commonwealth; the interests of labor and capital, of the manufacturers and importers; in short, of all classes, regions and individuals. To this end to make new law amendments to old ones, so as to secure equal justice to all for the common good. Such subjects a good representative will be posted on before election. The next legislature will have the all important question of Revenue or taxation to determine, as well as the re-districting of the state, and election of United States Senator; and any voter, farmer or otherwise, who expect these matters to be properly handled and discussed by men who know nothing about them now, does himself a great wrong.

Representatives who do not study and learn what to do with such matters before they are elected to office, never learn afterwards, no matter whether they have served one or more terms. In the legislature men do not learn how to properly draw or write out a bill, but simply the manner in which a bill becomes a law; some of them only learn "addition, division and silence." Within the next three or four months the candidates will be nominated, which in this county is generally equivalent to an election. This is the time to name in your mind themen, who know what is needed to be done, and who will have the courage and ability to accomplish something for the good of the county and state when elected, and not lie like a knot on a log in the legislature.

The farmers must not expect the legislature to do what they do not insist shall be done. The power is in the hands of the people, next January the legislature will have it.

The farmers should determine to let the political bosses know that while they (the bosses) may fool some of the people all the time, and all the people some of the time, they cannot fool all the people all the time, even if they have held office many years and hold a mortgage on the county offices, for the farmers have learned to their sorrow that representatives possessed only of political hog power and boodle are not the kind they want, that such political hogs may root, but they must die politically.

Yours truly,
C. M. BLAKER.

The Benton Assessment.

EDITORS COLUMBIAN:

We did not raise the question about the disbursment of the county fands as to how and where expended, or to what applied. The presumption is that they are generally proper and legitimate. We are not concerned about that, but we are concerned about the equality of values from which these expenses are to be drawn. In reply to Mr. Brown's comments in last week's Republican, speaking of the amount of taxes assessed to Benton and still due, said: "Now what was drawn by the (Benton) township from the treasury?" A sum of "$1230.80," and other items not mentioned, $332.72 more than was assessed to the township. Now this statement misleads the public mind to some extent, and some people may conclude that Benton is more detrimental to the county than beneficial. Mr. Brown did Benton an injustice in that particular. We do not charge this upon him as a malicious intention, but upon reflection, we believe he would have done otherwise. To set the public mind aright upon this question we will follow the line of his suggestions as applied to Benton, and see where it leads to. Greenwood drew from the treasury $1746.93 and was assessed $1279.93 Jackson drew from the treasury $1162.57 and was assessed $295.10, Fishingcreek drew $643. In each case other items are not mentioned. The county statement shows that $4247.69 was assessed to Bloomsburg and $628 30 still due. "Now what was drawn by Bloomsburg from the county treasury?" Under the various heads we glean as follows:

Miscellaneous Expenses, $158.07; Jurors pay and Constables returns, $816.77; Cost Commonwealth cases where county became liable, $214.00; Commissioners office and Court House, $2590.09; County Jail and Prison Requisitions, $2134.09; Printing, Stationery, Stamps, &c., $512.14; Inquisitions, $40.17; Bridge Repairs, $431.26; Assessors Pay, $84.95; Soldiers Burial &c., $45.00; A total of $9026.91.

If these expenses applied to Benton Mr. Brown could increase them a thousand dollars more from the county statement. Bloomsburg received $5407.25 more than was paid in and $4778.95 more than was assessed to that place. Now these are only the ordinary annual expenses drawn from the treasury by Bloomsburg, in addition to which several years ago $75,000 for county jail was drawn and still later several thousand dollars for court house repairs, We think that Mr. Brown, when sweeping before our door would have done well by having swept before his own, and again consigned a portion of the contents of his comments to the waste basket instead of to the columns of the Republican. We find no fault with the disbursement of the county funds, but merely call attention to the fact to show that "people living in glass houses ought not to throw stones."

Deformity From Bright's Disease.

S. D. VanBuskirk, of Demarest, N. J., says Aug. 20, 1888: "Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., has cured our daughter of Bright's Disease, after all other means had failed. She was so swollen that she measured 45 inches around the waist, and 18 inches below the knee. To say that we feel thankful for such a boon as Favorite Remedy is but a poor expression of the feeling of grateful parents.—3-7 1-m.

No More Gold Dollars.

The act prohibiting the further coinage of the $1 and $3 gold pieces and 3-cent nickle piece has passed Congress and is now awaiting the President's signature to become a law. The utility of these coins as currency, it is said, has ceased. Some two years ago nearly 6,000,000 of gold dollars were brought to the Philadelphia Mint, melted and coined into double eagles. Some doubts were expressed as to whether in destroying the gold dollar the unit of value would not be destroyed, but the unit of value is represented by a fixed quantity of gold, i. e. 23.22-100 grains.

Experience Taught Me!

And my money paid for it. After having Liver Complaint four years, and spending money on nostrums and doctors who didn't help me, I tried Sulphur Bitters. Six Bottles cured me I shall always use them.—G. N. Butler Cohoes, N. Y.—3-14 2-t.

This Remedy is the prescription of one of the leading physicians of Paris, France, and was used by him with unparalleled success for over thirty years, it was first given to the public as a proprietary medicine in 1878. Since which time it has found its way into almost every county on the face of the globe, and become a favorite remedy with thousands of the leading physicians. Medical societies have discussed its marvelous success at their annual conventions, and after their official chemists have analyzed it and found that it contained no opiates, bromides or other harmful ingredients placed it among their standard remedies.

The greater part of the oranges were distributed among friends in this place who wish to express thanks to the Dr. for his kind remembrance.

Several dozen of them were put on sale at I. W. Hartman & Sons grocery store. They are the sweetest oranges ever brought to this town.

A large and fashionable audience greeted Gilbert & Dickson's production of H. Rider Haggard's wonderful romance, "She," at the Opera House, last evening. "She" is too well known for us to enter into details; suffice it to say, the piece was well cast, and the scenic, mechanical and electric effects were all that could be desired.—St. Paul Daily Globe.

Elias Mendenhall died on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. He was down town in the afternoon and soon after his return home he was stricken with paralysis. A more extended notice will appear next week.

Gilbert & Dickson, the managers of the Company which will play "She" at the Opera House next Monday night, wish to call special attention to the fact that every piece of scenery, and all the effects advertised by them, will positively be used in the production. Many spectacular companies slight the night stands in this particular but the managers of "She" promise a performance complete in every detail, and exactly the same as the one they have given in all the larger cities, from Maine to California.

If they would devote part of the time they take to write themselves up, in looking around for and preparing news for their columns, it would hardly be necessary for them to be eternally and everlastingly telling the puclic how enterprising and independent or fearless they are. If they were worth half as much as they seem to value themselves at, the public would know and recognize it, without being reminded of the fact a half dozen times each issue.

General Wesley Merritt, U. S. A., will contribute to the April number of Harper's Magazine an article entitled "Three Indian Campaigns," accompanied with maps and illustrated from drawings by R. F. Zogbaum. The article gives memorable incidents illustrating the different phases of Indian warfare in the West. The campaigns referred to are those against the Cheyenne, Apache, and Ute Indians. General Merritt quotes and confirms the portion of a report by General Sheridan, declaring that it would have been actually less expensive for our government if an army of 60,000 or 70,000 had been maintained for the prosecution of these Indian wars; "and moreover, the blood of gallant officers, soldiers and citizens would not have rested on our hands."

Gilbert & Dickson's "She" Combination opened last evening to a packed house, who witnessed a magnificent production of Haggard's famous romance. The scenery was the finest that has ever been seen in our city, "The Temple of Truth and Ruined City of Kor" being a wonder in scenic art. Special mention should be made of the mechanical and electrical effects—the electric storm at sea being one of the most beautiful and realistic effects we have ever seen.—(Council Bluffs Nonpareil.)

Mrs. Margaret Girton died at the home of her son, Jacob L. Girton, in Bloomsburg on Friday morning, March 14th. She was one of the oldest residents, having been born on December 27, 1803, making her age 86 years, 2 months and 14 days. She was the relict of John K. Girton who died May 27, 1875. Mrs. Girton was born in Hemlock township, and was the daughter of Abraham Shoemaker, a revolutionary soldier who was buried in the Presbyterian graveyard on Third street on July 4, 1844, with the honors of war. Mrs. Girton was the last of her father's family. She always lived in Columbia county. Her surviving children are County Commissioner W. G. Girton, Jacob L. Girton, proprietor of the St. Elmo Hotel, F. M. Girton of Plymouth, and G. M. D. Girton of Colorado. Three are deceased, namely, Mrs. Emily Meredith, Oscar P. and John.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. W. C. Leverett. The remains were buried in Rosemont.

Death of Mrs. H. J. Clark.

Mrs. Sarah Clark, wife of H. J. Clark and mother of H. B. Clark, died at her home, Centre street, Sunday morning, March 16, aged 57 years. She was a great sufferer for the past seven years with an incurable disease. The best of medical skill was consulted but with no avail. A loving husband and son gave her the best of care, and provided everything possible for her comfort. She was the daughter of William and Anna (Knorr) Hagenbuch. She was born and raised near Milton. An only sister, Eliza, wife of John Hess, died at Dixon, Ill., last fall. Three half-sisters and two half-brothers survive her. She was married in 1855 to H. J. Clark, and moved to Bloomsburg in 1868 where she has since lived.

Funeral services were held at the house Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. C. Leverett, of the Episcopal church, of which church she was a member for many years. Mrs. Clark, by her kind and loving disposition had many friends in the community who deeply mourn her loss.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

The Columbia Co. W. C. T. U. met in convention in the M. E. Church at Espy, March 11th and 12th.

After the usual preliminaries, a cordial address of welcome was extended to the convention by Mrs. Rev. Mallalieu. Mrs. Melick of Lightstreet responded appropriately.

The President in her address, urged all members to work on in the Christian temperance spirit, regardless of opposition and discouragements.

Superintendents of the departments of Sacramental Wine, of Narcotics, Press and Prison work, Scientific temperance instruction, S. School work, Young Womens' work, Literature, Sabbath observance, Mothers work and Evangelistic work all made reports both interesting and encouraging.

The prison in our County has been visited by ladies of the W. C. T. U. On two occasions prayer was offered and at other times the scriptures read and literature distributed among the prisoners. Invariably quiet and order prevailed, and the visitors were treated with courtesy.

The work of Scientific temperance instruction has received much attention and it is proposed that through this department, the law regarding the study of Physiology and Hygiene, with reference to the effects of alcoholic drinks and narcotics on the human system, shall be enforced in this county.

Excellent plans of work were submitted by a committee and adopted, and a special effort will be made to carry them into effect.

Mrs. M. C. Walker and Mrs. J. F. Hertz both read essays which were meritorious and pleasing in composition and matter.

Delegates from the L. T. L. of Millville, delighted the audience with a program of their own and the little ones are to be commended for their successful efforts.

Mrs. Olive Pond Amies of Scranton, lectured on Friday evening. Her subject being the object and work of the W. C. T. U. Her resume of its past and present with the forecast of future success was cheering to the White Ribbon Band, Mrs. Amies also touched upon the various departments of work, which proved a stimulus to the workers and the audience was delighted with the manner and matter of the address.

Suitable resolutions were adopted, thanking the trustees of the church for the use of the building, the choir for their music, the clergymen for their services, also the ladies of Espy for their hearty welcome and generous hospitality. Convention adjourned to meet in Light Street, September 3rd and 4th.

89 Miles in 85 Minutes.

A NOTABLE RUN ON THE READING RAILROAD.

The most remarkable feat in the history of American railroading was accomplished a few days ago on the New York Division of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, when a special passenger train covered the distance of 90 miles between Philadelphia and New York in the almost incredibly short time of 85 minutes. The engine which made the record-smashing run is designated as "No. 366." It is of the peculiar type originated by the Reading Railroad, and was built for the regular fast passenger service of that road. The engineer was Frank Wagner, who, when he climbed into the cab, little fancied that he would leave it the hero of the fastest run ever made between the two big cities. No special preparation was made for a fast run, both engine and crew being selected hastily and almost at random to meet a sudden call for a "special." The first revolution of the drivers was made at 11.48 a. m. and the real running began between Wayne Junction and Bound Brook was covered in 49½ minutes, an average speed of 66½ miles per hour. The highest rate of speed reached was 87 miles per hour, and stretches several miles long were run at the rate of 81, 82 add 84 miles respectively. A little calculation will show the terrific velocity implied by these figures, and to stand the strain involved requires the very perfection of machinery and roadbed. The best previous record made by any train between New York and Philadelphia was that of a special, also on the Reading, which conveyed the late President Gowen on his return from Europe several years ago. The time then made was 90 minutes for 89 and four tenths miles, an has never been equaled until now, when Engineer Wagner and "No. 366" have beaten it by 5 minutes.

Cachemire Renforce—strengthened Cashmere. There you have it. The beauty, the finish, the touch that you associate with cashmere, and added strength. More than that, silk finished. The look and feel of Drap d' Ete. In all the new Spring shades.

38 in., 50 and 60c.
46 in., 75, 85c, $1, $1.25.

Take the $1.25 grade. The most beautiful goods of this character that we ever offered. Nobody makes better. Goods from the same looms had a front place at the Paris Exposition. Merit put them there just as it puts them here.

You know the grade of goods Lupin makes. No better wool stuff from anywhere. Certain, reliable. See that name on a wool dress material, and if the color's right, it's safe to buy with eyes shut and hands down. Judge then what sort of a Challis Lupin sends out! Grab a handful of adjectives that stand for grace, beauty, quality, and sling them all. They'll fit, and there'll be loveliness yet unlimited. Full lines of shades, 46 inches, 75c and $1.

Ingenious Japs, and thrifty. Wonderful how well they do the simplest things. You've seen bright bits of their handiwork for home prettying, but have you ever seen any of their Cloth? Here's a line of it. Very likely a yard of the sort was never on sale before in this country. Like Canton Crepe. Hard twisted cotton threads packed into a crinkly stuff and stripes or checked in seventeen striking patterns with fadeless colors.

"Japanese Koshina Crepe," they call it. On the top wave for style. 40c. Nowhere else in town.

Mousseline de l' Inde in a cloud of neat patterns has settled down by the breezy Organdies. More filmy and farylike than even the Organdies. As fine a cotton dress stuff as you're likely to see and as pretty. Printed 35c—green, navy, black, garnet, with white figures; plain, 30c—black, lavender, cream, navy, light blue, pink, garnet.

Organdies are 37½c.

A new Dent Glove for men. Just from London. New in two ways—new in this country, new price. Glance at a window full on Chestnut street and you will more than likely join the procession for the counter where they are for sale. $1.25.

Angel Cake, Sunshine Cake. How many good cooks have tried and tried to make them and other delicate sorts and been heartsick over failures? Simple enough now, anyhousewife can do it. Of course it was a woman's wit that showed the way—Mrs. VanDusen's. The old trouble was that the cake settled and sogged in cooling. Turn the mold bottom up, said Mrs. VanDusen, and to keep the cake from dropping from the greased tin, don't grease it. But the cake sticks? To be sure it does Just there's where the woman's wit shines out bright. A little slit just above the bottom, closed with a slide when the cake's baking, lets a knife blade in when all's done. Presto! there you have it free, light as seafoam,

You can see cake making and baking in these molds go, ing on any day, among Housekeeping things, in the Basement.

Atlantic City, and the Pennsylvania Railroad's Facilities for Reaching It.

Atlantic City occupies a unique position in the seaside resorts of America. From a distinctively summer resort, of which not many years ago daily excursionists were the predominating patrons, it has developed into a great seaside city, whose gates are open throughout the year, and whose hotels entertain the winter seeker after quiet and rest with as much comfort as they afford the hosts of summer on pleasure bent.

Nothing has contributed so much to this development as the magnificent transportation facilities which the city possesses through the liberality and enterprise of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Not content with a single line in the West Jersey road to Atlantic City, the Pennsylvania Railroad, with that unerring foresight which is a marked characteristic of its management, some years ago secured control of the Camden and Atlantic line also, so that it now practically operates a double-tracked roadway between Philadelphia and its great seaside suburb. Both of these lines are in splendid condition. The road-beds are laid with steel rails and ballasted; the block signal system controls the running of trains; and track tanks placed between the rails obviate the necessity of stoppages for water. The very highest rate of speed consistent with safety and good management is maintained, and year by year the schedule time is reduced. With the improvements and betterments of the present winter and spring, a further reduction will be made for the approaching season.

The equipment of the lines are exceptionally good. Commodious and cheery passenger coaches have replaced the old boxes of the past, and specially-built parlor cars afford any additional ease or luxury one could demand. Standard hard coal-burning locomotives of the pattern which has given the Pennsylvania Railroad locomotive a world-wide fame, are used on the fast trains, and every detail, both of management and equipment, is accorded as much consideration on these lines as on the other divisions of the Pennsylvania system.

Possessing such abundant resources, with its improvement and renovated station at Atlantic City, and the great excursion-house, located on the choicest portion of the beach, the Pennsylvania Railroad's facilities for successfully handling the enormous volume of its summer business are superior in every respect. This applies to every class of passengers, and the advantageous locations of its stations in Philadelphia makes it apply equally as strongly to the residents of other sections as to the people of Philadelphia.

In the Spring

The feeling of lassitude peculiar to the season begins to be felt. The average stock of vitality has been pretty thoroughly exhausted in carrying its possessor through the rigors and changes of the trying winter, and as the more genial season approaches and the strain upon the system relaxes a feeling of prostration, more or less pronounced in degree and duration, is the natural and inevitable result. During the existence of this feeling of lassitude and depression, business cares and exertions seem almost impossible of endurance, and even the lightest duties and responsibilities of life are regarded as a burden to be shirked or disregarded to the greatest possible extent.

If You are Wise

To devise some preparation to counteract this tired feeling and restore the system to something like a normal condition has been the endeavor of many people more or less skilled in medical science, and countless concoctions under the general title of "spring medicine" have been placed upon the market, had a brief boom and then been lost sight of, to be succeeded by some other similar preparation. The principal ingredient in most of the spring "bitters," "tonics," etc., alcohol, the effect of which upon the human system has been sufficiently dwelt upon through various public mediums to render any extended reference to the same unnecessary here. The temporary feeling of strength and exhilaration produced by this active agent is as certainly followed by a greater degree of depression, while the results of continued indulgence are a permanent impairment of the vital organs—the heart, kidneys, liver and brain.

The facts of the case are that you have been living upon meat and other fatty substances to a greater extent than at any other time of the year; the pores of the skin have been closed, and upon the kidneys and liver have devolved all the work of keeping the system clear. But now summer is at hand, and these organs cannot keep up the drain. The

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN ROADS.

What Experiment Has Proved — Some Opinions from Rhode Island.

Experiments on the amount of tractive force required to move a load show that it will take eight horses to draw a truck and load weighing 9,000 pounds on firm soil covered with gravel four to six inches deep. On earth embankment in good condition the work can be done by a force equaling two and one-half horses. On broken stone road in good condition the same load can be hauled by a force of one and one-quarter horses, and on the same road in bad condition, with ruts four to four and one-half inches deep and thick mud, five horses will be required. But on a good, dry pavement one good horse can move the same load all day.

On the subject of good and bad roads the following from the pen of the late Dr. J. G. Holland draws a comparison unfavorable to the existing road system in America:

"The point which I wish to impress upon my American reader is simply this: that the English horse, employed in the streets of a city or on the roads of the country, does twice as much work as the American horse similarly employed in America. This is the patent, undeniable fact. No man can fail to see it who has his eyes about him. How does he do it? Why does he do it? These are most important questions to an American. Is the English horse better than the American horse? Not at all. Is he overworked? I have seen no evidence that he is. I have seen but one lame horse in London. The simple explanation is that the Englishman has invested in perfect and permanent roads what the American expends in perishable horses that require to be fed.

"We are using today in the little town of Springfield just twice as many horses as would be necessary to do its business if the roads all over the town were as good as Main street is from Ferry to Central. We are supporting hundreds of horses to drag loads through holes that ought to be filled, over sand that should be hardened, through mud that ought not to be permitted to exist. We have the misery of bad roads and are actually or practically called upon to pay a premium for them. It would be demonstrably cheaper to have good roads than poor ones. It is so here. A road well built is easily kept in repair. A mile of good macadamized road is more easily supported than a poor horse."

The expense of building good roads is an important item, and the macadam is too expensive for country byways and crossroads, and, in fact, is only feasible where travel is extensive. Macadam 30 feet wide and 9 inches thick in the center requires 5,500 tons of broken stone to the mile. The cost of stone varies from 70 cents to $2 a ton, and this would bring the cost of surface material up to $3,850 to $11,000 a mile. A macadam road has recently been made near Philadelphia at an average of about $3,000 a mile for six miles, but there was a good foundation to work on. At Bridgeport, Conn., forty miles of good macadam, 18 to 20 feet wide, including grading, cost a trifle under $3,000 a mile.

The committee on improvement of highways, Rhode Island division of the League of American Wheelmen, recently received two important letters upon the subject of good and bad roads which are of general interest. Ex-Governor Henry Howard, of Rhode Island, says:

"I am very glad to learn that there is some prospect of legislation in regard to our faulty highway system. When I returned from my first and prolonged visit to Europe I could scarcely believe that I had all my life been familiar with such roads as met my eye on my return. In no part of my travels had I seen roads so poor as is the rule in our country towns; and I had been in some out of the way places, too. We are more wasteful in this respect than in all other things put together. Comparing the rural sections of Europe with those of our country, there is no doubt, I think, but that a horse there performs double the duty he does here, and therefore is worth twice as much. It would be the highest economy to put all our roads in a permanently good condition. When it is once done the annual expense is as nothing to the money which is expended now without any beneficial results. There is no class to which highways are so advantageous as to farmers. If they could be induced to give the subject sufficient consideration they would soon put a stop to this egregious folly of 'working out the tax.'"

The president of the Rhode Island Domestic Industry society writes:

"As to the matter of highway improvements, I think it is of the greatest importance to the prosperity of our agricultural communities that some change should be made in their care.

"At present in some parts of our state there is a gradual shrinkage in the value of our farming property, owing, in my opinion, to the want of better highway communication.

"In my own town, Scituate, we have about seventy-two miles of highway, divided into about sixty road districts, and in some of these districts, I fear, the road taxes have been expended on the 'working out or standing out plan.' Last spring, at our annual town meeting, it was decided to make a change by appointing road commissioners, the number not to exceed three. This change takes effect this coming spring, and I hope that suitable road machinery may be supplied them, so that our road taxes may be used to better advantage. As to the present condition of the roads in our state there can be but one opinion—they need to be improved; as to how it should be done I have no plans. It might be well for the legislature to appoint a committee to take the matter into consideration and recommend some law that should be applicable throughout the state."

Millions of dollars throughout the north and west have been tied up this fall and winter because of the mud blockade on the roads. This ought to set every one to thinking how it could be avoided. No one is responsible for the bad roads, but it is only a question of time when farmers, merchants and drivers will wake up to having their roads built as the bridges are, on a cash basis by a contractor under bonds.—Exchange.

Around The World In Sixty Days.

The editor of the Railway Age has made a study of Nellie Bly's route and time card and now gives as his belief the assertion that the trip can be made in sixty days, barring accidents. He shows that Miss Bly lost one day in London, two in Ceylon, five in Hong Kong and five in Yokahama, and also lost at least one day by unusual delay in crossing the Pacific ocean. He also shows that she traveled two hundred and fifty-three miles further than she would be obliged to oridinarily between San Francisco and New York. This was in order to avoid a snow blockade. It was made up, however, by the use of a special train which brought her to New York eleven hours ahead of the schedule time of the shortest regular run. Making all allowances and calculating upon regular connections the Age is certain that the trip can be accomplished in sixty days by regular schedule service and the present rate of speed.

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of healthgiving, blood purifying and appetite restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

A sea-serpent, 101 feet long, was seen to coil itself up in slippery folds on the coast of Florida last month. Three reliable persons saw this creature distinctly.

Reader, the above is a "yarn." If people would believe the following truthful statement as readily as they swallow sea-serpent stories, it would be the means of saving thousands of lives. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, if taken in time and given a fair trial, will actually cure consumption of the lungs, which is really scrofulous disease. If this wonderful medicine does not do all we recommend, when taken as directed, we will cheerfully and promptly return all money paid for it. Can any offer be more generous or fair? No other medicine possesses sufficient power over that fatal malady—Consumption, to warrant its manufacturers in selling it under such trying conditions. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not only the most wonderful alterative, or blood-cleanser, known to medical science, but also possesses superior nutritive and tonic, or strength-giving properties, which assist the food to digest and become assimilated, thus building up both strength and flesh. For all cases of Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, accompanied with lingering coughs, it is absolutely unequaled as a remedy. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, and kindred affections, it surpasses all other medicines.

$500 REWARD is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Catarrh in the Head which they cannot cure. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Remedy cures the worst cases, no matter how bad, or of how long standing. Fifty cents, by druggists.

Pettigrew's Conundrum.

IT WAS SUCCESSFUL WHEN HE GAVE IT OUT, BUT A YOUNG LADY MISSED THE POINT.

Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota is a perfect type of the bustling Far-Westerner. In some respects life at the national capital is original to him. He says he enjoys the receptions afternoon teas, etc., just as Ward McAllister would like to revel about over a timber claim.

"I'll relate one incident," said the Senator, "that will give you an some idea of the bright society people you often meet in Washington. I was at a little gathering a few days ago when for want of better amusement, the hostess proposed that each guest propose a conundrum. When it came my turn I asked: 'What is the difference between a man going out in the cold and a tired dog?' Of course, that's not exactly elegant, but it served the purpose. Nobody guessed it so I answered: 'One puts on an overcoat, the other pants.'

"The people seemed pleased, and one young lady laughed quite heartily. At a reception a few nights afterward, when the young lady who had laughed so heartily at the conundrum espied me in the room she exclaimed to a group of friends: "Oh, I've an awfully funny conundrum, and it's Senator Pettigrew's too!' Then she told about the man going out into the cold and the tired dog,

"'Give it up,' they answered.

"'One puts on an overcoat and the other trousers. Isn't that cute?' she exclaimed.

"The narrator was the only one who smiled. Naturally I felt like a four flush. The young lady noticed that something was wrong, and said: 'Now that's queer. The joke doesn't seem half so funny as it did when the senator told it.' I whispered that she should have said: 'One puts on an overcoat and the other pants. Tired dog pants, see?'

"That was enough to make one weep but all laughed for the sake of kindness. I never saw such a flat afair even at a Sioux Falls church sociable. Washington itself is all right, but when it comes to dress parade two or three times a week, why, after this, I'm not in it."—From the Chicago Tribune.

Compensation for Enumerators.

As each country is entitled to a certain number of enumerators under the coming census and as their will be many applicants for the positions the following statement as to the pay they will receive will prove interesting:

For every living person, two cents; for every death, two cents; for every firm, twenty-five cents; for every factory, thirty cents; for each veteran or veteran's widow, five cents. In special cases an enumerator may be paid by the day, not to exceed $5. The costs of taking the census of 1880 was over $2,000,000, and the next one is estimated at fifteen millions larger than in 1880. The work of enumerating will be done during the month of June next.

Now, Give Attention.

To the purification of your blood, for at no season is the body so susceptible to the benefits to be derived from a good medicine, as in March, April and May. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the people's favorite spring medicine. It stands unequalled for purifying the blood, curing scrofula, salt rheum, etc., regulating the kidneys and liver, repairing nerve tissues, strengthening and invigorating the whole body, as well as checking the progress of acute and chronic disease, and restoring the afflicted parts to a natural, healthy condition. If you have never tried Hood's Sarsaparilla for your "spring medicine," do so this season.

Would Stay Later.

A HOTEL WHERE GUESTS OBJECTED TO EARLY RISING.

"Put down room No. 52 to be called in time for the 4.30 train in the morning," he said, as he leaned gracefully over toward the night clerk in a Mississippi hotel.

"Case of life and death!" queried the clerk.

"Why, no; but I want to get to Jackson before noon."

"Hadn't you better wait for the 9.30 train?"

"What is it to you?"

"Nothing but the excitement and muss, and I shall probably have to testify at the Coroner's inquest."

"I—I don't exactly catch on."

"Come up-stairs, please."

When they had ascended to the first sleeping floor the clerk continued:

"This is room 28, as you see. There are five bullet holes in the door. Man in here last week wanted to be called for that early train. Room No. 30 has seven bullet holes, but those stand for two men. This new piece in the carpet here is where a man fell and bled to death. Down here—"

"But who killed off these guests?" asked the traveler.

"Oh, the other guests. As soon as the darky comes up and knocks and bawls out, Colonel Shaw, who has No. 32, reaches for his shotgun. Over in 20 Judge Hawkins slips out with his revolver. Major Brooks, who is in No. 33 always comes in a good third with a Derringer, and the rest of the fellows along the hall are always more or less well heeled. We don't care so much about the darky, as darkies are mighty cheap around here, but there must be an inquest on the body of the white man, and—"

"Did I say call me for the 4.30 train?" queried the traveler.

"I believe so."

"Then it was a mistake. I'm in no hurry. In fact, I like Mississippi in general and this town in particular, and even if I get away at 9.30 I shall be sorry to go. Just rub out the memoranda, and if I don't get up in time for breakfast you needn't mind sending a darky up to pound on the door."

Help to Mothers Nursing.

Mothers who have the care and draught of nursing infants need the aid of strengthening tonic to make up the nourishment required for the growth of the child. Ale, porter, and lager beer have often been recommended. Of late, since physicians have become aware that the Port Wine produced by Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J., is strictly pure, they have prescribed it instead of ale or porter, as being more blood making. This wine is principally sought for by mothers who have nursing infants at the breast, as the best supplying medium to be found. The wine is rich in body and not intoxicant but gently stimulating and makes good blood. Druggists generally keep it, and sell it for a dollar a bottle.—Enquirer.

RHEUMATISM

Not More than Twenty-five Years.—A Complete Recovery.—The Means Used.

I had Inflammatory Rheumatism. For nearly a year I had to be fed and turned in bed. I could find no relief. My stomach was ruined and cut to pieces with powerful medicines taken to effect a cure so that I was compelled to live on bread and water. I suffered for twenty-five years in this way. I was induced to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made in Rondout, N. Y., and thanks to this medicine. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is my best friend. With it I am enabled to enjoy a good night's rest. Also food, such as meat and pastry, which I have been deprived of for years, showing that the Favorite Remedy has no equal for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia as well. If any should doubt this statement I will send the ready proof at once.—Garrett Lansing, Troy, N. Y.

It is my pleasure and absolute duty toward those who are struggling for very life against the deadly to add my testimony to the already weighty evidence of the wonderful efficacy of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. My wife was a hopeless case, abandoned by the physicians. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was resorted to; not because any hope was placed in it, but because nothing else remained. All means and medicines had been tested without avail. The effect was little short of a miracle. At the second bottle she had regained strength, and continuing the treatment her fully recovered.—Jay Street, Albany, N. Y.
